- New! Continuous School Improvement Quarterly Update

Here is our Quarterly CSIP Newsletter! What is CSIP? CSIP stands for Continuous School Improvement Process. The purpose of our PHHS CSIP team is to provide a framework for the self-reflection and goal setting of each school to support the mission of Hanover County Public Schools of being a student-centered, community-driven organization committed to providing all students with exceptional learning experiences to prepare them to be confident, ethical, productive citizens. This year we have outlined five school wide goals: Writing Across the Curriculum, Attendance, Social Emotional Learning, Equity of Access to Resources, and Connecting as a PHamily. Please check out our newsletter to see what our Action Teams are working on this year!

- New! Hidden in Plain Sight

Hidden in Plain Sight (HIPS) is a FREE community initiative of Teens Care Too and Hanover Cares to help educate parents on possible signs of drug and alcohol use by teens. A teenager's bedroom is replicated to allow parents to "snoop" around to find indicators of substance use and hiding spots. This event will be held on Tuesday, December 7 from 6-8PM at New Song Methodist Church 7450 Colts Neck Rd, Mechanicsville.

- SOAR Virginia Program

Attention 10th Graders! Would you like up to $2,000 towards your college education? You may be eligible to be a part of the SOAR Virginia program. SOAR Virginia is an early commitment program created to inspire and assist high school students to reach their post-high school goals. It is sponsored by Virginia 529 College Savings Plan, an independent agency of the Commonwealth of Virginia and brought to you by participating college access providers.

To enroll in SOAR Virginia, students must meet eligibility requirements including:

1. Be a U.S. citizen or legal U.S. resident
2. Be a Virginia resident and a student in grade 10 and enrolled in a participating Virginia High School at the time of enrollment.
3. Comply with the SOAR Virginia Pledge, including the minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5 or higher at the time of enrollment.
4. Qualify to participate in the Federal National School Lunch Program.

If you meet the requirements, please fill out the form found in your School Counseling Office by November 19th. Students who meet all the requirements will be selected on a first come, first serve basis. Those selected will be contacted by Mrs. Lara Brown, your SOAR Virginia advisor.

- Virginia Tech Pamplin Leadership Award:

Attention Seniors! Mrs. Edwards is currently accepting applications for the Virginia Tech Pamplin Leadership Award through Tuesday, December 7 at 11:59 p.m. The Pamplin Leadership Award is a one-year, merit-based $5,000 Virginia Tech scholarship presented to up to 40 qualified students chosen from Virginia's public high schools. The award was established to acknowledge students who demonstrate superior intellectual promise, academic performance, dedication to their communities, interest and success in physical fitness and health, and unimpeachable integrity. The chosen nominee for our high school must have a 3.8 cumulative weighted GPA or better and have submitted their undergraduate admissions application to Virginia Tech. Check the updates section in your "Class of 2022" Schoology course for application details from Mrs. Edwards.

The American Legion U.S. Constitutional Speech Contest in Hanover County

The first competition for the 2022 American Legion oratorical program will take place on Saturday, January 8th, 2022. There are hundreds of dollars in scholarships available to students who are in 9th through 12th grades who want to participate. Each student must prepare 5 distinct speeches. The contest includes one 8 minute speech on any topic of the students choosing (as long as it pertains to the U.S. Constitution and our responsibility as citizens to uphold our role within our republic). And an additional requirement for the presentation of one 3 minute speech that is randomly selected from 4 possible topics. Families and students are strongly encouraged to contact the contest organizers to begin their competition preparations. For further information and to participate please call: (804) 223-2190. Coaching and guidance are provided in concert with the parents of participating students.
